Buyers' Week in Portland Soon.

"Buyers' Week" at Portland is scheduled for August 7 to 12 this year.

It is an event that is regarded as of unusual importance to the business men of the Northwest, and for the fourth annual event has won the voluntary endorsement of the president of the Oregon Retail Merchants Association. President G. C. Barlow has sent out a letter to every member of that organization urging his attendance on Buyers' Week. He points out that the occasion is one that is of equal value with the annual meetings of the association.

At meetings of the association the members listen to papers and discuss on merchandising.

"During Buyers' Week they see their theories in practice."

Portland contains many of the largest stocks of goods to be found in the west, and her retail establishments are on a similar plane, whether large or small.

"During Buyers' Week these places of business detail a force of employees to devote their time to visiting merchants and to give to them the benefit of their plans for merchandising campaigns."

It is a great big co-operative plan that fits the needs of both elements—the up state retailer and the Portland jobber and manufacturer.

The program, however, is not all devoted to the serious business of merchandising. Noon and evening hours are crowded full of entertaining features. For this year the list will offer many new features for the amusement of buyers and their families. Reliance can be placed on the committee in charge of that section of the program. Guests of the Portland merchants will be sent away declaring the 1916 event to be the best yet.

The general arrangements committee of the Chamber of Commerce is urging every merchant in the Northwest to visit Portland during Buyers' Week and to make that time his vacation. If he shall be able to plan for only one trip away from home during the summer. The committee declares its ability to so combine pleasure with business as to furnish an ideal outing for the visitor. The amusement resources of Portland will be exhausted in redeeming that promise. All features, except the annual smoker, are open to ladies.

Already the Chamber is beginning to receive acceptances from Washington and Idaho merchants who have attended previous Buyers' Week affairs. Every letter repeats the story that it has been beneficial to them.

"There is no disposition to deny that Buyers' Week is a benefit to Portland houses, but we also insist that it is a greater benefit to every merchant who participates from outside of Portland," said O. H. Fithian.

"He goes home with fresh ideas and fresh goods, and he is able to give his patrons the newest things the market offers in any line. He gets freshened up and the Portland man gets new angles on the direction the thought of business men is taking. By studying both we get results that can only be accomplished through mixing together."

As usual, Portland will this year refund the railroad fare of every merchant who purchases goods amounting to $500 or more. Take a receipt for your railroad fare when you pay it. Buy one way at full fare. Validated receipt will secure return ticket at one-third regular fare.

HIKERS RETURN FROM TRIP INTO MOUNTAINS

The Kappa Sigma Pi boys headed by their chaplain, Rev. Turner B. McDonald left Heppner a week ago Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock and hiked to the upper waters of Willow creek about a half mile below Slocum's Mill.

The boys reached the forks of the creek about ten o'clock where they partook of a light lunch and took some needed rest after which they proceeded to their destination. On reaching their camping grounds they proceeded to do some exploring until about five o'clock when Chas. Thompson, who had consented to take their bedding and outfit arrived. Leantos were erected, and supper prepared, games were then played for a while and the boys rolled into their blankets for a well earned sleep. Early the next morning they gathered their fishing tackle together and set forth to try their luck.

During their stay, Mrs. McDonald, who accompanied the boys by auto, gathered some fine specimens of moss and ferns and other things of interest.

Early Friday morning they awakened and began the operation of breaking camp. Mr. Thompson ar-

CAUSES OF PRESENT PROSPERITY.

The Democratic party would like very much to make it appear that the Wilson administration is responsible for present business conditions. The reports of the Federal Government totally disprove such a claim. The enormous crops of last year added approximately $500,000,000 more to the national wealth and circulation than did the crops of 1914. That, in itself, was enough to make a vast difference in relative prosperity.

Neither Mr. Wilson, nor Mr. Wilson's policies influenced agricultural production although the Democrats are disposed to take credit for it. But figures just published by the Department of Commerce prove beyond all question, that it is the war trade and the war trade alone that has expanded our foreign commerce far beyond all previous records and has made the country richer by many hundreds of millions.

In this report the exports and imports of 1913, 1914 and 1915 are presented by countries. The total exports in 1913 were $2,481,000,000; in 1914, $3,547,000,000, an increase of $1,066,000,000. All of this increase, and more is shown by the report to be due to the sale of war munitions and supplies. Our exports to England were increased by $557,000,000, to France by $340,000,000, to Italy by $192,000,000, to Russia by $139,000,000, making a total increase to all the allied countries of $1,248,000,000. To the countries bordering upon the war zone—Holland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Greece and Switzerland—our exports increased $218,000,000, all of which is due to abnormal demand growing out of war.

To suppose that our normal trade with these countries could be increased in the least under present conditions is manifestly absurd. Therefore we have a total gain in exports resulting from the war, of $1,466,000,000, as compared with 1913. Against this we have a loss, consequent upon the war, of $381,000,000 to Germany and Belgium, making a net gain from this cause of $1,085,000,000. Our exports to the rest of the world have decreased $22,000,000.

Our imports in 1913 amounted to $1,792,000,000; in 1915 to $1,778,000,000. Our balance of trade therefore, in 1915 was $1,769,000,000. Directly or indirectly the country is that much richer; we have sold to foreign nations that much more than bought from them. The war brought us in 1915 an average of over $17 per capita for the entire population of the United States. Eliminating the sales to the allies and the border nations our balance of trade in 1915 is seen to be only $303,000,000. Our balance of trade in 1913 was $692,000,000. So it is apparent that, outside of war sales, we have lost almost $1,000,000,000.

It is quite plain from these official figures that every dollar of our gain from foreign commerce is due to the war demand, and that the war and the crops have given us a prosperity not because of but in spite of the Democratic administration.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.
